

Corrected Amendments to Claims

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listing, of claims of the application:

Listing of Claims:

Claim 1 (currently amended) A television picture or image enhancing system comprising: a device located within the television and at and between the location of the originating television signal going to the television and the television which varies or allows the variation of the perception as in a prescription for vision of the pictures or images on or from a television screen₁.

Claim 2 (currently amended) The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 1, wherein the vision prescription may not vary₁.

Claim 3 (currently amended) The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 1, wherein the system may be attached directly to a television₁.

Claim 4 (currently amended) The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 1, wherein the system may not be attached directly to a television₁.

Claim 5 (currently amended) A television picture or image enhancing system comprising: a an eye-glass prescriptive signal delivering device which varies or allows the variation of the perception that provides eye-glass prescriptive signals as in a prescription for vision of the pictures or images ~~on or from~~ to a television screen prior to the television picture or image appearing or displayed on the television screen through broadcasted television signal manipulation₁.

Claim 6 (currently amended) The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 5, wherein the vision prescription may not vary₁.

Claim 7 (currently amended) The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 5, wherein the system may be attached directly to a television₁.

Claim 8 (currently amended) The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 5, wherein the system may not be attached directly to a television₁.

Claim 9 (currently amended) A television picture or image enhancing system comprising: a television screen ~~which may exist~~ that exists alone as a prescription television signal receiver and viewing surface only.